"Shall I tell you where the men are who believe most in themselves? For I can tell you. I know of men who believe in themselves more colossally than Napoleon or Caesar. I know where flames the fixed star of certainty and success. I can guide you to the thrones of the Super-men. The men who really believe in themselves are all in lunatic asylums."

He continues : "Are there no other stories in the world except yours; and are all men busy with your business? Suppose we grant the details; perhaps when the man in the street did not seem to see you it was only his cunning; perhaps when the policeman asked you your name it was only because he knew it already. But how much happier you would be if you only knew that these people cared nothing about you! How much larger your life would be if your self could become smaller in it."

These waves came over me, and over me, and over me, one after the other, until I recollect I cried out, "I shall die if these waves continue to pass over me." I said, "Lord, I cannot bear any more"

Winkie Pratney -characteristics of value/worth:

To summarize:

-To try to be the lord of your own life is humanistic and self-centered, not Christian, and basically lunacy.

-We are told to die to self. Jesus commands us to take up our cross in order to follow Him.

-God is the rightful owner of everything, especially of those He has purchased with the blood of Christ.

-His right is founded upon His infinite value and worth.

-Only those who don't really know Him will want to maintain control of their own live.

Who's the center of your life, you or Jesus? Why do you do the things you do, and who do you do them for? These things begin on the inside. Pray and ask Him to be Lord of all your life. Ask him to root out your self-centered nature and ideas. Ask Him to give you a revelation of His ultimate beauty and worth.
